WHY I GO TO A SALON VS. WHY I GO TO A BARBERSHOP

"I GO TO ARMANDO CORRAL AND GET MY HAIR CUT BY A LADY NAMED MARIE. SHE CUTS IT SO IT DOESN'T LOOK LIKE I JUST GOT A HAIRCUT, WHICH IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE $10 AND THE $125 HAIRCUT. AND WE HAVE A REAL RELATIONSHIP: SHE'S COME IN EARLY FOR ME AND STAYED LATE FOR ME, AND I REALLY TRUST HER ADVICE. SO I LISTEN WHEN SHE PUSHES ME A LITTLE BIT FROM WHAT I NORMALLY LIKE."

—MICHAEL BASTIAN,
FASHION DESIGNER

"I GO TO BAXTER FINLEY IN L.A. BECAUSE I LIKE THE IDEA OF GOING TO A SHOP WHERE YOU HANG OUT WITH OTHER GUYS. I WANT TO BE ABLE TO SHOOT THE SHIT WITH MY BARBER AND TALK ABOUT THE KNICKS GAME AND TRUST THAT HE KNOWS WHAT CUT TO GIVE ME. I USED TO GO TO A SALON, BUT IT FELT TOO MUCH LIKE WALKING INTO A LADIES' SHOE STORE—I DON'T NEED A BLOWOUT, I DON'T NEED COLORING."

—DERRICK MILLER,
CREATIVE DIRECTOR, BARKER BLACK

The Best New Styling Product

Created by stylist Tyson Kennedy in his New York City apartment, Fatboy combines hold and lightness. "I wanted something dry and rough that didn't make me feel like I needed to wash my hair immediately," he says. A year and a half of tinkering led to a pepperminty clay that creates a matte look without excessive weight. $18, fatboyhair.com

The Case for Dry Shampoo

Guys with longer hair who want to avoid the poofiness that showers can cause should try dry shampoo. Made up of oil-absorbing powders you spray into your hair, it not only gets rid of dirt and grime but also adds volume and body.

From top: Rene Furterer Naturia Dry Shampoo ($32). Bumble and bumble Black Hair Powder ($35). Serge Normant Meta Revive Dry Shampoo ($25). Right: Klorane Gentle Dry Shampoo With Oat Milk ($18).
